spondency of the Louisville Democrat.] Letter from Iowa.

BLOOMFIELD, lowa, Oct. 30, 1858

desers. Epirons: I think a few words a this region upon politics might not be unparties had a majority of over 17,000 over man. This year the Abolitionists beat us the State about 1,000. By this you will see we have gained in two years about 16,000 es; and yet we feel hadly beaten. In 1554, on the Abolitionists obtained power in lowa, State was, in a manner, out of debt; but and steaking, she is now involved in a State debt REAL ESTATE ing to a continued system of extravagance of nearly $500,000. This induced a large numper of the more honest Abolitionists to abanlon this thieving party, and to vote the Democratic ticket. By this addition to our party, we gained numbers sufficient to have carried the tate, but we lost a large number of votes by the treasonable conduct of the President and his unes towards the Hon S. A. Douglas.

These Democrats had worked with an honst purpose for the election of James Buchanan to the Presidency, under the Cincinnati platform. They supposed that, if elected, he would carry out its principles, as understood by Democrats North and South, to-wit: That the people of Kansas should regulate their local intitulions, without the intervention of Con TO MERCHANTS, FRUNDRYMEN, STEAMBOA gress, in their own way, and to suit themselves; and if they wished a free or pro-slavery Con-stitution, it was their right to elect which, and our duty, as Democrats, to acquiesce in their choice. But we were told by the Abolitionfavor the admission of Kansas with a slave constitution, no difference what the people of Kaneas wanted. We pledged our words, our bonors, and the honer of the Southern Hemocracy, that if the people of Kansas really wished to be admitted into the Union with a free State Constitution, the President, Buchanan, and the whole Southern Democracy would willingly acquiesce; but if the people of Kausas A Ferm, willing as hour's drive of the elected, would freely acquiesce.

Buchanan was elected. The trial came; and, to our utter astonishment and dismay, the President did attempt to do the very thing that the Abolitionists had predicted; and what was worse upon us, the South sustained him. Our words and honors were set at mught. But the President did not stop here, but offered insult to injury in the reason he gave for his treadity, to-wit: That Kansas was now a slave State, and the quickest manner possible for her to be free was to admit her against her will, and the then Legislature could, at their first session; large and the quickest manner possible for her to be free was to admit her against her will, and the then Legislature could, at their first session; large and, to insure this, caused his clayer of Lend in Vashington count, Ky., the slave, Calhoun, to issue certificates of election.

See the total variation of the city and very finely unproved. Terms cash and time 4.00 mile of land to gave for his treadity, to-wit: That Kansas was now a slave State, and the quickest manner possible for her to be free was to admit her against her will, and the there is no down outly line of land to Vashington count, Ky., time first seesator. These could, at their first seesator, large first the lowest cash prices by ware, whiters, transfer the process of the during the process of slave, Cathoun, to issue certificates of election to the Abolition members of the Kansas Lugislature. And, strange to relate, the Southern Democracy say Amen. O! Jeemes, live for were "Black Republicans, reacquies, and trait ors," and to our great mortification the Scuthern Democracy say, "True, O: King!!" Nothing under his reign is pure Democracy, but proud and swinding. But, werse still. This old lunatic concludes that his Democracy taught him that he must distance the more statement of the statement old unatic concludes that his Democracy and taught him that he must dictate to the people rath of Illinois how they shall vote; and that they shall vote for a regular built Abolitionist hey must denounce him. The course of the emocratic nominee.

The question is often asked here, what are

South back square down, and come out in their State Conventions before 1261, and denounce WOULD INVITE THE ATTENthe treachery of James Bachanan. Thie, Sirs, you of the South must do, and the sooner the steps, and return to your own platform of '56. what we demand of you do not comply with our rightful request, the Democracy of the mighty will let loose red mouthed Abolitionism upon you! Do you ask, is the Democracy at the North going to turn; Abolition? We annewer, no, sir. But we cannot go with you, ou sewer, no, sir. But we cannot go with you, ou sewer, no, sir. But we cannot go with you, ou sewer, no, sir. But we cannot go with you, ou sewer is like the old lady did when her busband and the bear were fighting stand off, not caring a drat which whites.
